EarthMoments - Tabla Grooves - Indian Percussion

EarthMoments presents Tabla Grooves - a vast collection of tabla rhythms recorded in India with a variety of top notch studio and sessions musicians. This bundle offers a great selection of high quality live tabla recordings in various time signatures and rhythmic patterns, suitable for a variety of different production styles.

An intricate instrument, playing the tabla involves a series of complex finger patterns and palm techniques used to produce a variety of different tones, timbres, and pitches. These unique tabla samples offer producers and DJs a wide range of different sounds and rhythmic textures to choose from, adding an exotically Eastern flavour to any production.

The diverse loops and sounds draw on traditional Hindustani Classical musical motifs, but are accessible enough to fit with several genres – from electronica to contemporary, ambient and many other genres. The colourful and exotic nature of the samples also makes them apt for any producer looking for inspiration before starting a composition, or looking to add an unconventionally Oriental touch to their productions.

- Ableton Live Pack (8.2+)
